ABOUT THERMASOL

ThermaSol invented the first electric steam shower and has been at the forefront of technological innovation since their humble beginnings in 1958. ThermaSol received patent #3007178 in July of 1958 for a combination steam bath and shower which redefined bathing and pioneered the industry, as well as ushering in the beginning of wellness consciousness. Three generations later, CEO Mitch Altman has continued the family legacy of bringing new technologies and expertise to the business: SmartSteam, FastStart, PowerFlush, Capacitive Touch Controls, Voice Controls, and most recently the multiple award winning HydroVive. ThermaSol harnesses the power of light, sound, and water to deliver a highly personalized wellness showering experience. As an industry leading tech company, ThermaSol’s technological proficiencies have turned the shower into a fully immersive, intuitive, and multi-sensory spa experience bringing wellness to one’s daily routine; unlike anything else found globally.
